О себе

I am a seasoned Front-End Developer with over 4 years of experience specializing in Frontend technologies such as React, Redux, JavaScript, TypeScript, HTML, CSS, Git and more.

I have primarily focused on startup projects, collaborating with international teams based in Europe. My expertise encompasses the end-to-end development of new features, creation of pages and functionalities, optimization of front-end performance, and provision of ongoing support for production projects. Looking for new opportunities to use my skills and contribute to innovative web development projects.
