Despre mine

I am open to new things and ready to learn. I easily find a common language with people and don't like conflicts, I always try to come to an agreement.
I like this field of activity, I like to come up with something new and surprise people.
I'm quite picky and pedantic, so I always try to keep everything in order.
I am well versed in bar culture, history and mixology.
In my work I want to receive trust from my superiors and freedom of action, as well as the opportunity to introduce something new and experiment.
